

SR-71 Pilot Brian Shul's story is one of the most inspirational true-life journeys I have ever heard. Brian encourages us to never give up and to embrace new possibilities in the midst of great tragedy or trials. I had the privilege of listening to and meeting Brian during his presentation at Seafair in Seattle on 6 August 2022. One of our dear friends accompanied us to this talk as she was dealing with brain cancer and enduring very difficult aftereffects of this horrible disease as well as the ensuing chemotherapy and radiation treatments. Brian brought her to tears of appreciation and gave her a newfound hope to persevere. Needless to say, I had a few tears of my own.

Dear friend, if you are also struggling, please take the time and let this incredible man speak to your heart and soul. Check the link below to give a listen.
